Creating Disciples

Who Create Other Disciples

The mountain on the cover represents the kingdom of God, here on earth. It is built by the God-led efforts of each Christian over the last 2000 years as we follow Christ's command to create disciples (Mark 19:28). We do this because Christ commands it and we love Him. We want more people to share in the abundant life with Jesus. What does this mean at LCR? It means that we are committed to provide opportunities for all to encounter Jesus and grow in relationship to Him and each other.

These pages contain information about programs and events available at LCR. They provide opportunities in the Resurrection Life practices of Bible Today, Discernment, Regular Small Groups, and Annual Pilgrimage. Our prayer is that this catalog helps connect you with God and His children as you continue to transform into a disciple of Christ.

Bible Today: Sundays

The City of God by St. Augustine (DVD Lecture Series)

Take a historical and theological journey through the final years of the ancient world. Key arguments and historical context necessary are highlighted. Witness how Augustine wrestles with some of the thorniest philosophical challenges of any time, including the problem of evil, faith versus reason, fate versus free will, and the very nature of God. This study is in progress but can be joined at any time.

Class held by the Contemporary Religious Thought Group. This group is a co-ed, mixed-age forum for discussion of new theological perspectives on the biblical narrative, church history, and faith and spirituality concerns.

Led by Ed Aebischer, 9:30 a.m. in the Conference Room

ed.aebischer@att.net

Twelve Ordinary Men: How the Master Shaped His Disciples for Greatness and What He Wants To Do With You, by John F. MacArthur

We do not have to be perfect to do God's work. The twelve disciples' many weaknesses are forever preserved in the pages of the New Testament. Jesus chose ordinary men - fishermen, tax collectors, political zealots - and turned their weakness into strength, producing greatness from people. Christ's careful, hands-on training of the original twelve disciples is shown to today's modern disciple - you.

Class will be held by the Contemporary Religious Thought Group at 9:30 a.m. in the Conference Room starting in late February. Led by Ed Aebischer. ed.aebischer@att.net

Martin Luther: Visionary Reformer by Scott H. Hendrix

Martin Luther was neither an unblemished saint nor a single-minded religious zealot according to this new biography by Scott Hendrix. Luther is presented as a man of his time: a highly educated scholar and teacher and a gifted yet flawed human being driven by an optimistic yet ultimately unrealized vision of “true religion.” The focus is on Luther’s entire life, his personal relationships and his political motivations, rather than on his theology alone.

Class will be held by the Contemporary Religious Thought Group at 9:30 a.m. in the Conference Room and will begin in mid-April. Led by Ed Aebischer. ed.aebischer@att.net

Study of the Book of St. Mark

The book of Mark tells of Jesus’ ministry in more detail than either Matthew or Luke. It relates what Jesus did in a vivid style, where one incident follows directly upon another. Mark stresses Jesus’ message about the kingdom of God breaking into human life as good news and Jesus himself as the gospel of God. Jesus is the Son whom God has sent to rescue humanity by serving and by sacrificing his life. This study will be followed by a study of the Prophets in April.

A lively discussion and a commitment to spiritual growth are the driving forces behind this group. Led by Dan Gilroy, 11 a.m. in the Conference Room. dangilroy7@comcast.net

Discussions of the Weekly Reading

Each week the scripture that is used in our worship services is covered. Led by Richard Leon, 9:45 a.m. in the Choir Room leonrichard@bellsouth.net

Led by Ingrid Ott, 9:45 a.m. in Room 6 of the Family Life Center ingridott09@gmail.net

Bible Today: During the Week

Mary & Martha

This group of women combines Bible study with doing needed tasks around the church, just like Mary and Martha would.

Mondays, 10:30 a.m.-12 p.m. in the Conference Room. Led by Sandy Brosch & Patty Pantelakis msbrosch@yahoo.com

Matthew Learner Guide: Book of Faith

Matthew's gospel speaks to us today by identifying the church founded by Jesus and issuing practical instructions for living in community. Matthew envisions the church as made up of sinners and doubters who struggle with faith, temptation, and forgiveness, but ultimately reflect the ministry and presence of Jesus.

Tuesday Women's Bible Study. Led by Marge Mynhier, at 10-11:30 a.m. Conference Room. $12 book fee

Reformation 500

500 Years of Evangelical Reformation 1517-2017

When Martin Luther posted his “Ninety-five Theses” on the church door in Wittenberg in 1517, no one expected the breadth of evangelical reforms in Christian teaching and practice that followed. In every dimension of Christian faith a renewed trust in God’s forgiving mercy replaced a reliance on teachings and practices that, like the sale of indulgences, were vulnerable to abuse and corruption.

Preaching a few years later, Luther said, “I opposed indulgences ... but never with force. I simply taught, preached, and wrote God’s Word; otherwise I did nothing. I did nothing; the Word did everything.” When he began to propose reforms in worship, he wrote similar words. “This is the sum of the matter: let everything be done so that the Word may have free course.”

Nearly 500 years later, the results of this evangelical confidence in God’s forgiving and liberating Word are evident today in Christian communities of all types. (www.elca.org)

LCR will be celebrating Reformation 500 through various worship, bible today, daily discipleship and fellowship events. A few are listed below. Watch the weekly and the website for further details.

Wednesday night adult programming will focus on Martin Luther, the Reformation and Lutheran beliefs. The Lenten services will be built around Martin Luther's Small Catechism.

Wednesday night Summer Series will discuss the Augsburg Confessions, the confession of faith for the Lutheran Church and the most important document from the Reformation. Beginning June 7
