Reformation Sunday

Welcome to Reformation Sunday - a celebration of Martin Luther's theological challenge of the practices of the Catholic Church in 1517. On October 31 of that year, he posted what is now known as the "95 Thesis" on the front doors of Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. The Color of the day is red, which represents the power and presence of the Holy Spirit, as well as zeal and martyrdom.

Selfie with Luther

While you are in the Narthex today, take a selfie with Luther and post it to LCR's Facebook page!
