Your Love Can Help Heal Her Broken Heart

We have all heard about the war in Ukraine but hearing personal stories of those impacted can drive the need for help home in a new way. Here's one story from our mission partner, Lutheran World Relief (LWR):

Five-year-old Diana was looking forward to a fun day visiting her grandma and grandpa. Instead, her childhood was interrupted that day when something very scary came to their doorstep. War. Russia invaded Ukraine that day...as well as Diana's heart and mind. Diana's grandparents had to use their bodies as human shields to protect her from the shrapnel of deadly bombs.

Today, her grandparents continue to love, shelter and care for her ... because Diana's parents cannot get through the many checkpoints to bring her home.

Children like Diana need your loving comfort and generous support. LWR provides all kinds of humanitarian relief in Ukraine and around the world. To learn more and donate, click here.
